G.J. WOLFINGER

Alamogordo, New Mexico

Prices the Lowest; Quality the Best

James J. Hill left Friday morning for Nogales, Ariz., on a business trip of several days duration. Pedro Martinez, a sheep herder, was caught out in the blizzard which swept this section on the 7th, and a week later was brought to town with both feet frozen. Amputation will probably be necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carpenter returned Sunday evening from Elephant Butte where they have been for the past eight months. They are preparing to open a shoe repair shop and will stand one door south of Groom's meat market.

The annual meeting of stockholders of the First National Bank was held January 14 and the following directors were elected to serve during the ensuing year: C. E. Mitchell, J. R. Gilbert, James Hunter, E. H. Wayland, F. C. Polak.

The Ladies Home Mission society of the M. E. Church, south, will give a dollar social Friday night, January 24. The members of the society have each contributed one dollar and will relate the method by which they earned it. In addition a program will be rendered.

If you are looking for bargains in clothing, shoes, women's gowns and dry goods, you will do well to read the big, interesting announcement. G. J. Wolfinger makes this week in his "After Inventory Sale" advertisement. Read it through and then hike—before the bargains are all gone.

In the justice-of-the-peace election his Monday Judge W. K. Stedman won easily over his opponents, J. S. Baker and Hop Lee, and although the candidates for constable were more numerous and the contest more spirited, James J. Hill was safely elected, successfully defeating James Swope, W. T. Pace and Charles Berkebech.

George Sellers died at Hotel Dion El Paso, on Thursday last of paralysis. He leaves a wife and a baby girl about two weeks old. Mr. Sellers was taken sick at Tularosa only about three weeks ago, from which place he was taken to El Paso for treatment. Mr. Sellers was well known in this community, and for ten years or more lived at Cloudcroft.

The Pythian Sisters installed the following officers for the ensuing six months Tuesday evening: Mrs. William Johnson, P. C.; Mrs. D. A. Fribley, M. E. C.; Mrs. Tom O'Reilly, E. S.; Mrs. J. V. Latham, E. J.; Mrs. William Holmes, K. of R. & C.; Mrs. George Weigle, Sr., M. of P.; Mrs. C. F. Prince, M. Mrs. L. R. Hughes, P. of IT.; Mrs. George Weigle, Jr., Guard.

Marie O'Brien, who died at El Paso on the 2d instant, was well known to many of our young people, as well as the residents of Highrolls and Mt. Park, at which latter points she spent her summer vacations. Miss O'Brien was a resident of Alamogordo for about eighteen months and was a charming young lady. She was 25 years of age at the time of her death. Her mother, Mrs. O'Brien, is at this time seriously ill with acute bronchitis.

Cloudcroft News Notes.

(By Scott B. Williams)
Cloudcroft, Jan. 17.—W. S. Howate has just been checked out as custodian for the El Paso & Southwestern System at Cloudcroft by A. M. McCorkle, travelling auditor. Mr. Howate resigned to accept a position at Alamogordo and left Tuesday to assume his new position. W. R. Clark was checked in to take Mr. Howate's place. Mr. Clark is a resident of Cloudcroft and has already had experiences that qualify him to hold the position which he is taking, having been employed as a water service man at Cloudcroft some time ago.

In the election held Monday J. M. Pose was elected Justice of the Peace for Precinct No. 10, and S. H. Nimmo constable. Neither candidate had an opponent. C. F. Knight, J. A. Tatum and Scott B. Williams were judges of the election, and O. Houston and George Nimmo were clerks.

M. F. and Mrs. F. S. Riggs entertained at their home Tuesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Riggs, Messrs. Nadia Riggs, Lou Palmer, Ethel Kirkland, Messrs. Alfred Riggs and Scott B. Williams.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cox Monday night, a baby boy. Mr. Cox is with the Cleve & Knight Mercantile company.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hewitt Monday night, a baby girl. Mr. Hewitt for several months has been custodian for the El Paso & Southwestern System at Cloudcroft. Mrs. Walker in Sixteen Springs Canon is very ill.

Want to Buy Hares
I will buy one or two cars of hares or some cheap stock horses. Give price and weight. C. A. Watson, Tahoka, Texas.

Presbyterian Social.
Friday, January 17, the Presbyterian church will hold a social gathering at the church building, opening at 7:30 p. m. The purpose is to secure funds to pay for the new Gospel Hymn books. To do this they ask for a freewill offering from all who may feel able to thus help them. From 7:30 to 8:30 all who are innocents are requested to bring such. The following program will be rendered:

Trilo—Messdames Taggart, Seagrams, Minns.
Quartet—Miss Lyman.
Quartet—Messrs. Morgan, McAlmont, Schurtz, Armsstrong.
Address—"The Importance of the Balkan War"—J. A. Armstrong.
Mixed Quartet—Messrs. Morgan and Armstrong, Messdames Taggart and Soper.
Light refreshments will be served, furnished by our Ladies' Aid society. A very hearty welcome to all who may wish to spend a pleasant and profitable social hour with us.

Presbyterian Church.
January 19, our 11 a. m. subject is, "Is the Second Coming of Our Lord Near?" The 7 p. m. meeting will be a song service on the same subject. Welcome to all our services.
J. A. ARMSTRONG.

Book Party.
Mrs. D. A. Fribley entertained a number of her friends on Thursday evening with a book party. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening spent. Those present were: Messrs. and Messdames William Johnson, C. Beecher, Thomas O'Reilly, J. Prather, J. C. Harry, William Holmes, C. F. Prince, Mr. Morrell.

Advertised Letters.
List of advertised letters for week ending January 3, 1913: Johnson, Mrs. J. W.; Ortiz, Sra. Falsilana; Ruiz, Gonzales Perez; Dr. Feliciano; Sape, Sil. When calling please say advertised and pay one cent.
J. M. Hawkins, P. M.

H. V. Schurtz has departed for his home in Cameron, Mo., after a pleasant visit here with his parents and with his brother at Denning.

HUGHES & BENNETT RECIPROCITY

There is a kind of reciprocity which has an important bearing on the personal welfare of every Man, Woman and Child in this community.

It is an exchange of equivalents between this store and every individual on both sides. Your profit is in having a Safe Place to buy your Groceries, and a strong financial institution interested in the development of your affairs. Our profits are gained from the moderate fees received from the countless transactions made each day.

Come and establish reciprocal relations with a store in which every transaction is "Money-backed" as to honest goods, honest prices and honest, efficient service.
